NOTE—Contn sheet

Submitted to His Highness

In June 1923, the City Municipal Council of Mysore was deprived of its privilege of electing a Vice-President, as a mark of displeasure and as the only way by which it might come to its proper sense of civic responsibility, because it failed to exercise its privilege on the resignation of Mr.B Basavaradhya though two opprtunities were afforded

The President, City Municipal Council in his letter No 74 dated the 2nd February 1924 forwarded a copy of their resolution dated 26th Januory 1924, containing a request for the restoration of the privilege and for allowing them to have the election early in March 1924

The First Member of Council is of opinion that their request mau be ed and I agree with him

A draft notification restoring the privilege is submitted for gracious approval
